News Briefs

Psychological Exam Set For Alleged Murderer

John Phillips, 25, of Grayling, who has been charged with the homicide of Tracy Lorraine Moon, has been ordered to undergo a psychological examination at the Michigan State Forensics Center at Ann Arbor.

Phillips who is being held on an open murder charge was supposed to face a preliminary examination on February 17 but the order for the testing superceded that court appearance.

Moon was found partially nude with a knife located near her body on February 8 according to Grayling Police. Phillips was arrested soon after her boy friend David Scott McCumby was questioned and released.

State Police Drug Bust Nets 115 Pounds of Dope

State police from the Houghton Lake and Gaylord posts confiscated 115 pounds of marijuana from an AuSable Township residence in Roscommon County on Feb. 9.

The raid came after Houghton Lake State Police received a tip there would be a drug deal in the parking lot of the Grayling K mart store. Undercover state police from the Gaylord narcotics units observed the drug deal in the parking lot and Houghton Lake uniformed state police later arrested a 29-year-old Roscommon woman and a 33-year-old Grayling man.

As a result of the Grayling bust, state police obtained information leading to the raid netting the 115 pounds of marijuana with a street value of $180,000 and the arrest of another suspect.

As of Tuesday, Feb. 23, warrants for the Roscommon woman and Grayling man have not been issued yet and they have not been arraigned in District Court on a charge. The Avalanche will not publish a suspect's name until they are arraigned in District Court on formal charges. The Roscommon woman was arrested by state police for possession of marijuana and the Grayling man was arrested for delivery of marijuana. They were both released pending issuance of warrants.

Infant-Child CPR Class Scheduled for March 3

An Infant-Child CPR Class will be held at Mercy Hospital, Grayling on Thursday, March 3, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Riverside Room. This class is especially important for new parents, grandparents, child care workers and babysitters.

"This is a rural county and the response time for an ambulance to arrive on the outlying areas is generally more than can be tolerated by a child or infant who is not breathing," said Pat Hanson, Community Services Coordinator at Mercy Hospital. "Knowing how to clear the airway and restore breathing or maintain artificial breathing until help can arrive significantly improves the victim's chances for survival."

To register for the class or for more information, call the Community Relations Office at 348-5461, extension 330. There is no fee for the class. If individuals wish to receive their American Heart Certification for this CPR module, the cost will be $5 for the card.

Red Cross Blood Bank Set for Next Wednesday

There will be a Blood Bank on Wednesday, March 2nd, at the American Legion Hall between noon and 6 p.m.

Local Red Cross officials say blood is still in critical supply in most of Michigan as well as other major cities in the U.S.

Although health officials say it is impossible to contract AIDS by giving blood, some blood donors are apparently still unconvinced and are staying away from banks and creating this critical shortage of life saving blood.

Blood donors of Crawford County, however, are still responding magnificently, local Red Cross officials say.

Dial-A-Ride will pick up and take blood donors to the American Legion Hall in downtown Grayling without charge. Just dial 348-5409.

Donors are asked to bring their Red Cross Donor Card - it helps to accurately record donations.

Little Caesars is giving away a free lunch to anyone donating blood, on March 2nd. Ask for details when donating.

School Board Places Same Millage Requests On April 13 Ballot

By Don Geiss

The Crawford AuSable Schools Board of Education voted 5-0 to return with the same two millage requests that were offered in the recent election. The new election date is Wednesday, April 13, the same day as a COOR millage vote. The school district decided to go on the same day as COOR to avoid the cost of a special election.

The school board met in special session last Wednesday to decide what to do after the Feb. 15 defeat of the two millage proposals. The first proposal includes a renewal of 17.9 mills plus an additional 3.95 mills to continue current operations and the second request is for one mill for a vocal music instructor, high school library assistant, elementary counseling, maintenance contracts and additional maintenance personnel and projects.

Crawford AuSable Superintendent Kent Reynolds said the April 13th vote is crucial. "A millage needs to be passed before June to get on the summer tax rolls. If we don't make the summer tax rolls we will need another $100,000 to pay the interest on the money we'll have to borrow until the tax money starts coming in December."

Pictionary Olympics Draws Sixteen Local Teams

Come to the K of C Hall this Thursday night and watch the fun as at least 16 teams take on the challenge in the first ever "Pictionary Olympics." The Olympians begin their rounds of drawing and guessing at 7:30 p.m.

Hostess Gloria Kraus will facilitate the event as each contestant draws the word taken from the original hit game Pictionary. Judge Tom Davis will oversee that no rules are broken, while his wife, Sandy, times each round of play for one minute. Co-hostess "Vanna" Alef will be showing the audience the word being drawn to add to the fun and excitement. Teams entered in the contest should be at the K of C Hall no later than 7 p.m. for a review of the rules, etc. Area businesses and organizations sponsoring contestants as of press time include the Grayling Promotional Association, Century 21 River Country Real Estate, Scheer Motors, Cornell Real Estate, Cornell Insurance Agency, St. Mary's Church, Grayling State Bank (two entries), Mercy Hospital, Mac's Drugs, American Business Women's Association, Chemical Bank North, The Avalanche, Chief Shoppenagons Hotel, Flowers By Josie, and Custom Forest Products.

Hospital Detoxification Program Has Helped 46 Patients

The road to recovery from alcoholism starts here: Detoxification.

To detoxify means "to free (as a drug user or alcoholic) from an intoxicating or an addictive substance in the body." If a person who drinks or uses drugs on a regular basis suddenly stops, withdrawal symptoms will appear which can be recognized as tremors, seizures, and even hallucinations. Nausea and sometimes vomiting are present, as well as sleep difficulty. The patient is often easily startled, depressed, tired and craving alcohol or other drugs to quiet his or her symptoms. Often, the patient is disoriented or has trouble concentrating.

The Detoxification Program at Mercy Hospitals Cadillac/Grayling is designed to help the addicted person through the detoxification phase, in a medically safe manner. A team of professionals including the Emergency Room staff, physicians, social workers, nurses and alcoholism counselors meet with the patient and their families. The goal is two-fold: 1) Medically safe detoxification over 2-3 days. 2) Referral to continued treatment.

Since the program opened in July 1987, 46 patients have safely been detoxified. All were referred to further treatment, with almost 50 percent being successfully placed in inpatient recovery programs. This is a very high success ratio for people who are in the later stages of alcoholism.

Grant monies have recently been obtained from Northern Michigan Substance Abuse Services to pay partial hospitalization costs for the indigent alcoholic. This means that those people who have no insurance or Medicare/Medicaid and who qualify for Detoxification Program can apply grant money to help pay for their hospitalization at Mercy Hospitals in Cadillac or Grayling (between Jan. 1988 and Sept. 1988).

For more information, contact Mercy Hospital's Substance Abuse Program at 616-779-7415. The longest journey starts with the first step.

STRAIGHT FROM THE PROS — Mickey Lolich gave tips on pitching at last year's clinic. This year Jim Northrup will give tips on hitting and fielding during one of the instruction sessions.

AIMING FOR OLYMPICS — Kirtland President Ray Homer presented a sponsorship check (on behalf of the college, and the KCC Student Senate) to Brett Stockton, a Grayling resident and 1983 graduate of Kirtland. Brett was a member of the USA Kayak Team in 1987, and is an Olympic hopeful for 1988. Viking Senior Band To Showcase Festival Selections in Concert

By Nancy Lemmen

The Grayling High School Viking Senior Band performs in concert on Thursday, February 25, at 7:30 p.m. The program includes the selections which the band will perform the following Saturday at the annual District Band Festival in Traverse City.

Director Dennis Ormsbee has chosen "The Omaha Beach March" by John Edmondson to open Thursday's concert, as well as the festival performance. The march takes its title from the section of the northwest coast of Normandy, France, where American forces landed during World War II.

James Swearingen, who has greatly influenced the modern American music industry, composed the second number, "The Chesford Portrait," which is GHS's choice at festival for the state's required piece.

Andrew Fox's "American Pioneer Suite," a tune composed of four American folk songs, is the third festival piece which the band will play in concert. Ormsbee describes the folk songs as beautiful melodies dealing with everyday occurrences in the lives of the early American pioneers.

The program will close with two "fun tunes," says Ormsbee: a toe-tapping percussion novelty piece entitled "Shenanigans" and one everyone will enjoy called "Tail Gate Junction."

The concert band performance will be followed with entertainment by the talented GHS Jazz Ensemble playing old favorites. "Stoppin' at the Savoy," "Woodchoppers' Ball," "Basic Blues," "Moose Juice" and "Foo's Blues" are among the group's repertoire and will most likely be included at the concert.

Ormsbee invites the entire community to what he describes as "a night of music, a night of great fun, a night to remember." He adds, "Your presence is your admission price;" and if that is not enough to entice the audience, the Band Boosters will serve refreshments after the performance.

The band festival will be held on Saturday, February 27, in Traverse City's Lars Hockstad Auditorium, located in Central Grade School on 8th Street. The Viking Band performance, which is free and open to the public, is scheduled for 2:20 p.m.

County Awarded Federal Funds for Emergency Food, Shelter Programs

Crawford County will receive $3,977.44 to supplement emergency food and shelter programs in the area.

The selection was made by a National Board made up of affiliates of national voluntary organizations and chaired by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). United Way of America will provide the administrative staff and function as fiscal agent.

The Local United Way Board will determine how the funds awarded to Crawford County are to be distributed among the emergency programs.

World Series Stars Northrup, Tresh Highlight Grayling Baseball Clinic

Missing the Grayling Baseball Clinic this Saturday, Feb. 27, would be like missing the hint sign on a suicide squeeze play.

It's something a good player wouldn't want to do.

The Grayling Baseball Clinic runs from 1-5 p.m. at the GHS gym. It's open to players, coaches, and parents of all ages and levels of ability.

Featured speakers this year are former Detroit Tigers World Series hero Jim Northrup and former Yankee All-Star Tom Tresh. Also on hand will be Dean Kreiner, CMU head baseball coach, Fred Wolcott, GHS baseball coach and former MVP four times in minor leagues, and Mick Cockran, Terry Lynch, and John Northrup, all former college stars who signed with the Detroit Tigers.

Northrup, who played 10 years with Detroit, was outstanding for the Tigers in the 1968 World Series and 1972 League Championship Series. He hit a grand slam in game 6 and drove in the winning run in the 7th game to help Detroit come from behind to beat St. Louis.

In the 1972 LCS against Oakland, Northrup led Detroit with a .357 average.

Tresh also excelled in World Series play. In 1962 he led the champion Yankees in hitting (.321), runs scored, home runs, hits, and stolen bases in the World Series. In 1962 Tresh was also named Rookie of the Year. In 1963 he led the Yankees in home runs, runs scored, and RBI's in the World Series. Tresh also won a Gold Glove Award in 1965.

Tickets to the clinic are $5 for adults and $2 for children. Grayling Little League sponsors have purchased additional tickets for any Little League, Major League, or Minor League players who don't have one yet. They can be picked up without charge at R & H Sports.

Michelson Methodist Church Hosts 1988 World Prayer

At 1 p.m. Friday, March 4, at the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church in Grayling World Day of Prayer begins its second century of celebration on Friday, March 4, 1988. A prayer movement of global dimensions, World Day of Prayer is a worldwide expression of mutual prayer and Christian unity. It began 101 years ago in the USA as a day of prayer for mission. It has now expanded until today it is celebrated as a common day of prayer by thousands of Christians in 170 countries and regions of the world. The same theme and worship materials are used worldwide translated into hundreds of languages and dialects. In many countries, the event serves as a catalyst for women to come together to bring about changes in their lives.

The theme of this 101st World Day of Prayer is "Open Doors." Written by both Protestant and Roman Catholic women from Brazil, it reflects the background and concerns of South American women who are struggling both to achieve greater freedom and to elevate the quality of life for themselves and for all people.

Several churches are taking part with Hertha Laupmanis, Chairperson. All women of the area are welcome. There will be nursery care provided and a coffee hour to follow program.

Former Lovells Resident Announces Candidacy For State Court of Appeals

Thomas Koernke has announced today that he is a candidate for one of two newly-created seats on the Michigan Court of Appeals. Koernke is a trial lawyer and the co-owner of a sixteen attorney Grand Rapids law firm. The new judgeships will be filled on the nonpartisan ballot in the August primary and November general elections later this year.

Koernke stated that legislation passed in 1986 provides for the election this year of six new judges on the Michigan Court of Appeals. When these judges take office on January 1, 1989, the Court of Appeals will increase to twenty-four judges from its current eighteen judges. Two of the new judgeships will be elected in the Court's Third District, which includes 62 of Michigan's 83 counties. The Third District includes Crawford County and virtually all of western and northern Michigan.

appointment by the Governor to fill State judicial vacancies.

In 1984, Koernke served as State Chairman of Chief Justice Dorothy Comstock Riley's successful campaign for the Michigan Supreme Court.

Koernke and his wife, Holly, and their two children live in Cascade Township in Kent County. Koernke and his wife are graduates of Michigan State University. He is also a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School.

Koernke grew up in Crawford County, where his parents, Hazel and the late Fred Koernke, operated the Pine Grill Restaurant for 23 years in Lovells on the North Branch of the AuSable River. He graduated in 1966 from Frederic High School in a class of five. Koernke and his wife co-own a cherry orchard in Leelanau County, which she and her father operate.

Lattimer Writes 2nd Book On U.S. Space Program

Dick Lattimer, longtime Advertising Director for Bear Archery, has recently authored his second book on the U.S. Space Program. Titled "Space Station Friendship", the new 240 page hardcover book is just now reaching bookstores from Stackpole Books, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. "Space Station Friendship" is set in the year 2007, the 50th Anniversary of the launching of Sputnik. It is based upon current plans for the Space Station now in its initial planning stages. NASA recently awarded start-up contracts for the Station and Lattimer's timely book is based upon existing technology. As part of his extensive research, Lattimer, along with his son, illustrator Michael Lattimer, had the unique opportunity of spending several days aboard the space station mockup in Huntsville, Alabama. The book includes 36 drawings by Michael Lattimer, who works in the Bear Archery Shipping Department.

In "Space Station Friendship" the reader visits the many elements of the space station, including habitation modules, the animal research facility (ARF), and the "industrial park." Also covered are the modules of the European Space Agency and Japan, as well as the next generation Canadarm.

Lattimer's first book "All We Did Was Fly To The Moon" continues to be a best seller at space and science centers around the country. The founder and executive director of The Fred Bear Sports Club, Lattimer is also a Fellow of The British Interplanetary Society.

Autographed copies of "Space Station Friendship" can be ordered from Space Station Friendship, P.O. Box 1702-14, 4300 N.W. 23rd Avenue, Gainesville, FL 32602. Enclose check or money order for $14.95, plus $2.00 postage and handling along with the name you would like the author to autograph the book to. Autographed copies of "All We Did Was Fly To The Moon" can be obtained from the same address for $8.95 plus $2.00 postage and handling.

The committee to elect Barbara A. Selesky (D) 103rd House of Representatives has announced the commitment of candidate Selesky to seek the Democratic nomination for House of Representatives.

Selesky says she has years of involvement in the most basic issues affecting the 103rd District. Human services and family life issues are key to the planning future growth in northern Michigan, she feels. Selesky has served with many local and statewide organizations to foster and implement quality of life solutions to area problems. Selesky feels the years of representation on various boards has encouraged her to seek the seat of State Representative. Many solutions and much assistance could be aided by active representation and networking of available resources, she says.

Selesky chose to come home to northern Michigan and become a businesswoman and owner of foster care facilities in Crawford County.

Selesky is an active member of St. Mary's Parish, Grayling, and serves as a Eucharistic Minister.

Bits of Talk . . . by Fay Bovee

The first 'bit' today is to ask if there is some local person out there who would like to take over this column. There is lots of news but it needs to be found. If you like to talk to people, like to write and can type, this job is for you. Please contact Jon Thompson at the Avalanche. I've enjoyed doing this column for years but it needs to be taken over by someone who will spend more time on it. Personal news is part of the interest of a small town paper. Let us hear from a new writer!

The second time is to congratulate the newly married couple in town. We wish them the best.

For those of you who haven't been on Michigan Avenue lately, Ivie Girl, a dress shop in the Mercantile building owned by Karen Kammer is now open and she will soon be joined by another shop by Kathy Ashton. The old Sorenson building is echoing with the sounds of construction as Mordick's Fudge prepares to open and the Parkinsons are readying their store.

Free Snowmobile Safety Class Offered Feb. 27

There will be a snowmobile safety class on Saturday, February 27, at the Grayling Fire Department at 9:00 a.m. There is no charge for this class. For information contact the Crawford County Sheriff Department.

Opinions

Northern Views

By Jon Thompson

I wonder if a new nickname is about to be pinned on Grayling by state residents?

I just recently heard Traverse City called "The Little San Francisco on the Bay" supposedly because of the number of gay people living there.

What will Grayling's new nickname be? In this new year of 1988 we've had an 18-year-old pregnant mother of a two-year-old murdered and another young woman was beaten and left chained to a tree overnight in sub-zero temperature. The military and some residents are fighting a hot battle over Camp Grayling and two school millages were just defeated.

We're really on a roll here. I liked it better when we were simply the Archery Capital of the World and Grayling was a nice little town.

Many readers have been complaining about the lengthy letters to the editor. The Avalanche is going to set a 500-word limit on all letters. Letters above 500 words will be edited to comply with the limit. If you feel this 500-word limit is unfair because you can't say everything you want to in 500 words, we'll place a soapbox on the sidewalk for you and you can talk all you want.

A Grayling group of CRAIG HINKLE, MIKE CROZE, DON KOHNERT, DAVE WHITE, JIM MCCLAIN, BOB MADSEN, JOE THOMPSON, CERRY ST. GERMAIN, WAYNE HINDMARSH, and myself lucked out on our trip to the Silverdome last Thursday night to see the Pistons beat Seattle.

Our tickets were for seats at the top of the bleachers but some generous folks (who just happened to not be at the game) let us use their season-ticket seats in the VIP section right along courtside.

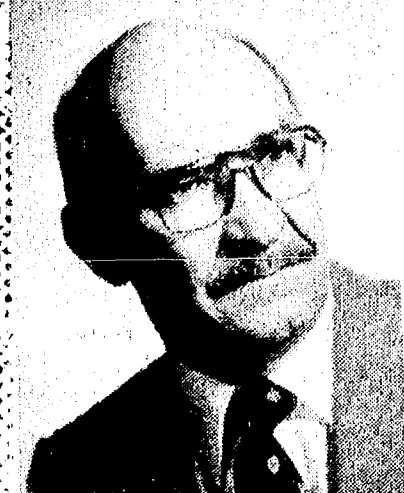

We were so close to the action you could feel the ball bounce or the basket support shake when "Spider" Salley jammed one. We were close enough to almost feel Rick Mahorn elbow Alton Lister and you can hear Bill Laimbeer crying to the official or Isiah telling Rodman to clear out.

It's going to be tough to ever have better seats than that. Hinkle said the only way we could top those would be to have Jack Nicholson's seats in the Forum.

Almanack

I Remember Soapy ...

by Richard Milliman

YES, I REMEMBER Soapy Williams, too. Back in 1948, when G. Mennen Williams was first a candidate for governor of Michigan, I was a journalism student at Michigan State University, working during the summer in advertising sales at my hometown newspaper, The Coldwater Daily Reporter.

Soapy Williams came into The Reporter office, accompanied by his wife, Nancy, to place his own political ads, and he became my account. They were driving themselves in their DeSoto convertible; in truth, I don't remember it as wither gray or beat up, as recent news stories indicated. I recall the convertible as sort of maroon, and pretty new, considering the year was 1948.

But there were no advance men, no press representatives, no bodyguards, no staff of any sort — all that would come later. In 1948, it was just Soapy and Nancy out on the campaign trail, placing their own ads, and paying for them, cash in advance, as all politicians were required to do.

By 1950, Soapy Williams had become governor, and I had moved on, too, becoming a reporter at The Holland Evening Sentinel after graduation from MSU.

The big story in Holland was the annual Tulip Festival, and Gov. Williams always took part — not in the reviewing stand, not presiding at any event, but right out there in the parade, washing streets in full Dutch costume including wooden shoes.

I didn't check the archives, but somehow I can't picture pre-Williams governors such as Kim Sigler or Harry Kelley in wooden shoes with broom and suds bucket. But after Soapy Williams, every governor becomes Dutch at Tulip Time.

This was just one of the ways in which Gov. Williams set the pace for campaigning in Michigan.

By THE MID-1950s, Soapy Williams had survived two recounts in his re-election bids, as well as life in the state Capitol as the only Democrat in administrative state office, plus being surrounded by whopping Republican majorities in the legislature.

The election of 1954 was a turning point, and the full Democratic slate for state office won along with Soapy Williams; the legislature remained Republican.

By then, I was a capitol reporter for The Lansing State Journal, covering the legislature and the governor's office. Gov. Williams' press relations were outstanding. He was always available. He held two press conferences every day — one at 10 a.m. for the afternoon papers, one at 3 p.m. for the morning papers (there were two in Michigan then). Television and radio weren't important then — nor did they bother with capitol coverage, either.

Later, when I served as press secretary to Gov. George Romney, I went back to the Williams experience in advising availability to the media, but Gov. Romney wouldn't buy two press conferences a day; he did start with one a day, however.

EVERY FOUR YEARS in those days, there was a boomlet of Williams for President, although it never went beyond the favorite son stage.

Working against him were a number of factors — partly his extremely liberal image and record partly his "payless payday" reputation after dealing with a highly partisan Republican legislature partly his extremely close ties with organized labor, which were real but probably overly exaggerated by outsiders.

Gov. Williams needed organized labor to win the many elections he won. Union leaders were never far from the center of power during his tenure in Lansing either. As a reporter, I found Democratic state conventions were fairly easy to cover; we waited for the "labor caucus" to meet, and then whatever the UAW's Roy Reuther (Walter's brother), and the AFL-CIO's Gus Schelle had worked out came to pass.

This sort of relationship helped Soapy Williams in Michigan, but hurt his chances for the national ticket.

I REMEMBER the 1960 presidential campaign, when Gov. Williams threw his support to a young and struggling Sen. Jack Kennedy at a crucial moment of Kennedy's campaign when Kennedy badly needed open liberal support, and Williams' early endorsement gave it to him.

I remember covering the 1960 national convention in Los Angeles, when Kennedy unexpectedly picked conservative southerner Lyndon Johnson as his running mate, and the disappointment and sense of betrayal felt among the liberal Michigan delegation, including Soapy Williams. The loud shouts of Michigan "noes", led by Gov. Williams, in the call to make unanimous Johnson's nomination for vice president is an indelible memory, too.

President Kennedy's selection of cabinet officers passed Williams by, — unfairly, in the view of many, including mine. Instead, Soapy would serve the new frontier as an assistant secretary of state for African affairs, of all things. There must have been disappointment in Kennedy's slight, but Williams never showed it. Instead, he made his new job seem like the greatest one he could have been given, and he attacked it in that way.

YES, I REMEMBER Soapy Williams in many ways, mostly from the earlier days of his career when he was breaking horizon after horizon.

The last time I saw Soapy Williams was on the MSU campus at a football game in 1967. We exchanged pleasantries, and I introduced my daughter, who was with me.

But I didn't call him Soapy. And I didn't call him Mennen. I never did.

I always called him Governor.

Alef Helped Make Local Automobile Races Possible

The January 28 "California Edition" of the Avalanche arrived today and I really enjoyed the article about, and the reminiscences of, my good friend Jack Alef.

His remarks regarding automobile racing on the Grayling Airport brought back fond memories of Jack and his part in making them possible. During the late 50's and early 60's, I was the Competition Chairman of the Western Michigan Region of the Sports Car Club of America and we conceived the idea of holding Sports Car Races on the Grayling Airport.

We received permission from Lansing to hold the races between the end of the Trout Fishing Season and the opening of the Grouse Hunting Season. The Sports Car Club would stage the event but we needed the cooperation of the community in providing an ambulance and a fire engine. Admission could not be charged but we offered the Grayling Chamber of Commerce the parking and the Program concessions.

In those days, the Grayling Chamber of Commerce was having difficulty surviving but, in a meeting with the Chamber and Jack Alef, the Grayling State Bank underwrote the Chamber of Commerce commitment for the race support. I remember that Don Jansen and I spent the better part of a day driving a well to provide drinking water for the contestants and their crews.

As time went on, the Grayling Races became well known among sports-car fans and we would have 50 to 75 cars participating in the Technical Inspection in downtown Grayling Friday afternoon and evening with racing all day Saturday and Sunday.

I remember one memorable weekend when the contestants, their crews and the spectators drank up all the Scotch Whiskey in Crawford County.

My friendship with Jack Alef goes back a long time and I am happy to see that he will continue to be active in promoting the Grayling area, we would sorely miss "Mr. Grayling".

Sincerely,
Bob Franklin
Solana Beach, Calif.

BILLS INTRODUCED TO REVAMP EMANCIPATION OF MINORS ACT

By Warren M. Hoyt
Michigan Press Association

Rep. Perry (D-Ann Arbor) has announced the introduction of legislation to clarify portions of the emancipation of minors statute, which provides a legal mean of ending parental responsibilities before a child reaches the age of 18.

The bill would establish uniform filing standards and require court involvement in all emancipation cases. Currently, most emancipations are sought by parents who have terminated responsibility of their children as young as age 14.

Under the proposed change, the emancipation proceedings must be initiated by the minor, who must be at least age 16.

Bullard said the changes proposed in the bill require minors to show that they can manage their own financial, personal and social affairs.

The measure also requires youths to show that they understand their legal rights and responsibilities as emancipated minors.

Bullard said that he believes, because the present statute is unclear and has no set guidelines to insure that parents prove their minor is financially self-sufficient before an emancipation petition is granted, it is often used in ways for which it was never intended.

For example, he noted, in some counties, parents emancipate their children by filing papers with the county clerk... "to get rid of unmanageable children, regardless of whether they are financially or emotionally able to provide for themselves." He added he believes the requirements proposed in the bill will help insure that jobless and emotionally immature minors are not left to fend for themselves.

COMPUTER SYSTEM COLLECTS $100 MILLION IN DELINQUENT TAXES

Treasurer Robert Bowman reported the Department of Treasury's high-tech computer system has collected more than $100 million during its first two years of operation.

The system features a state-of-the-art telephone and computer linked system that enables telephone operators to contact as many as 3,000 individuals per day who owe the state delinquent taxes.

The state installed the system in February, 1986, at a cost of $7.5 million.

G.C. Stevens Corporation, the nation's largest collection agency, operates the system located in Lansing.

The Department of Treasurer supervises on-site activities and authorizes all enforcement actions such as liens and levies. G.C. Stevens also designed a similar collection system for the Internal Revenue Service and 31 states nationwide.

BLANCHARD CITES 1987 AS YEAR OF SCIENTIFIC ACHIEVEMENT

Governor James J. Blanchard declared recently that Michigan's selection as a possible site for the Superconducting Super Collider (SSC) caps off a year of scientific achievement for the state.

"Michigan is ideally suited for this project and it fits very well with our vision of Michigan's future as a world center of knowledge-based jobs. The winner of the SSC will become the center of advanced physics for years to come," he said, citing Michigan's selection as the National Center for Manufacturing Sciences and the Center for Commercialization of Space for Robotics as other major achievements.

Final decision on the SSC site is expected by July.

The Michigan site, located in rural Stockbridge between Lansing and Ann Arbor, is one of eight sites throughout the country picked by the Federal government for the $4.4 billion atom smasher project.

Other sites are located in Texas, Arizona, Colorado, Tennessee, New York, Illinois and North Carolina.

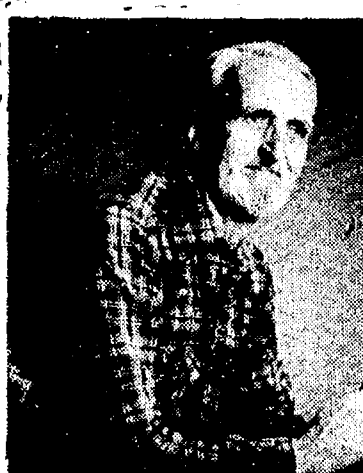

The Stockbridge location was selected due to its being situated between research universities, Michigan and Michigan State, and because it has diversified housing, recreation and employment opportunities, as well as access to Detroit Metropolitan Airport, according to a report issued by the National Academy of Sciences panel, which makes the decision.

As proposed, the project would mean 4,500 new jobs, 2,500 of which will be permanent and a $275 million annual operating budget. If Stockbridge is selected, it could mean the relocation of 221 homeowners and the purchase of 700 parcels of land by the state for the construction of an underground ring, 52 miles in circumference, that will be used to study high energy physics.

Some Numbers Dealing with School Millages

By Don Geiss

After the recent defeat of both Crawford and AuSable School millages we became intrigued with the statistics of voters for and against those school issues and the ones preceding it.

Readers will recall that the first item of a renewal plus 3.95 mills was defeated by only 51 votes. The second proposal on the ballot of an additional mill lost by 210 votes, having been turned down in all three precincts.

Proposal one was defeated because there was more than a two to one against in Precinct No. 2 and a 27 vote against margin in Precinct No. 3.

To fully understand the voting margins, the precinct descriptions should be very clear. Precinct No. 1 includes Grayling, Grayling Township and a portion of Beaver Creek Township. Precinct No. 2 is made up of Frederic and Maple Forest Townships, a portion of Otsego Lake Township and Bear Lake Township in Kalkaska County. Precinct No. 3 is Lovells Township.

We looked at the voting record for millages and bond issues of the school system for the past 10 years and found a very exacting scenario in every election except one. That record showed that Precinct No. 2 and No. 3 have voted against 22 proposals out of 23 over that span of time. The year that they approved, the margin was 58 votes in Precinct No. 2 and five in Precinct No. 3.

In that 10 year period, Precinct No. 1 has voted in favor of seven millages or bond issues out of the 23. Five of them passed and a sixth lost because it was passed in Precinct No. 1 by only one vote. That same operating millage balloting failed in Precinct No. 2 by slightly over 2 1/2 to one margin and by almost a five to one margin in Lovells Township. The other loss was the recent one with a 51 vote no margin.

In general, the statistics point out that Precinct No. 2 turns down millages by at least a two to one margin. Precinct No. 3 is even more opposed to the majority of school issues as it turns them down about three or four to one.

In each of the cases where the yes votes prevailed, it took margins of at least 200 votes in Precinct No. 1 to overcome the no votes in the other two precincts.

To restate the matter in another way, Precinct No. 2 and No. 3 have voted against millages and bond issues 22 times out of 23 in the past 10 years while Precinct No. 1 has voted favorably on seven issues during the same time. In order for a school millage or bond issue to pass, it is necessary for Precinct No. 1, Grayling, Grayling Township and a portion of Beaver Creek Township to pass an issue by at least a 200-yes vote margin.

Grayling, who has been in class C for several years, is in class B this year.

"The kids we face in class B are about the same — they're just as good as class C wrestlers but there's more of them in class B. There's a lot more depth on teams and more good wrestlers in class B," said Ferguson.

Grayling, who is now ranked in the top ten in class B, will face three other top-ranked teams at the regional, Bullock Creek, Pinconning, and Gladstone.

The winner advances to the quarter-finals at Alma the next Wednesday.

Which 3 teams have won the NCAA basketball tournament the most times in history?...They are UCLA which has won it 10 times, and Kentucky and Indiana which have each won it 5 times.

One of the most inspiring basketball players of all-time was George Glumack of the University of North Carolina. Although Glumack had a slight handicap and difficulty seeing the basket, he worked with fierce determination to become a great player...He developed a sense of knowing where the basket was and despite his slight handicap, he became a big scorer in major college basketball...Glumack averaged 21 points a game for North Carolina in the 1940-41 season...In one game he scored 43 points...Glumack triumphed over adversity and made the college All-America first team.

Here's an amazing fact about current big league baseball player Wade Boggs...Going into the 1988 season, Boggs has a lifetime batting average of .354 and that gives him the 4th highest lifetime batting average of ALL-TIME (minimum 1,000 hits) behind only Ty Cobb, Rogers Hornsby and Shoeless Joe Jackson.

I bet you didn't know...that Shoeless Joe Jackson has retired from baseball and now sells cars at Scheer Motors in Grayling! He does so under the alias of Bill Hart! We have several promotions and incentives that Bill can offer you on cars and trucks that can raise your batting average along with improving your lifestyle! Come see Bill today!

GHS Volleyball Team Comes Close Against State's Top Squad

The Vikings played the top-ranked Class C team tough but lost 10-15 8-15 2-15 at Rogers City in the last league game of the season on Feb. 17.

For the fifth year in a row, Grayling had a chance to tie or win the league championship in a final match against Rogers City. The Class C powerhouse denied Grayling a win for the fifth year.

"We played well the first two games," said Viking coach Becky Brown. "We even established a lead in the first game."

"I was pleased with our players. Some played above themselves and others played up to their potential."

Sheryl Klinger had an outstanding day leading the team with 5 saves.

"She went into the bleachers three times to save a ball," said Brown. "One time she made a spectacular save going into the 4th row of bleachers."

Klinger and Sue Casler led the team with 9 serves each. Casler also had 14 spikes, 7 sets, and 8 tips.

Carrie Trudgeon led with 24 sets and put in 9 tips that Rogers City could not make a play on. Jenny Money had 11 spikes, 8 tips, 7 blocks, 7 sets, and 35 passes. Patty Tremblay had 11 spikes and 5 serves. Deanna Phelps had 7 blocks and 4 serves. Heather Derenzny had 10 passes.

In the afternoon conditions changed as the sun warmed the courses causing deep ruts in the wetter, heavier snow.

The girls team, racing in giant slalom was led by Julie Huss who won her regional medal and a trip to the State Finals with a 5th place finish. Huss was followed by Lori Gust who was 14th, Anne Petrosky 35th, Aimee Rochette 39th, while Caroline Shin and Jennie Lochner were disqualified after falls. Conditions were so good that the courses looked barely raced on after both runs which meant that all six seeds had optimal conditions giving all racers a fairly even chance.

The boys competed in slalom led by Jayson Welser who collected his second medal with a 5th place finish. Tim Hickey recovered from a first run fall to place 29th, followed by Tony DiPonio who was 32nd. The next two skiers, Mike Burkley and John Jurkovich fell and were disqualified leaving it to freshman Pete Opperman to come through with a clutch performance taking 48th.

At the end of the day, the Grayling boys finished in 5th place in a 17 team field behind the meet's winner, Traverse City Central, Petoskey, Gaylord and Charlevoix. Individual boys winners were Charlevoix's Wes Cumberland in slalom and Traverse City's Matt Lambert in giant slalom.

The girls finished the day in 6th place in a 13 team field behind first place Harbor Springs, Charlevoix, Petoskey, Traverse City Central, and Glen Lake. Gaylord finished 7th. Lauren Pace of Charlevoix won both the slalom and giant slalom events.

... about your Social Security

When a Social Security or SSI beneficiary becomes unable to handle his or her own funds, usually due to illness, Social Security will appoint a representative payee to manage the person's benefits.

The representative payee, who is usually the guardian or a close family member, is responsible for making sure the person's day to day needs for food, clothing, shelter, and personal expenses are met. Beneficiaries who can still handle small amounts of spending money should have this made available to them. After the person's basic needs are met, Social Security benefits may be used for things such as insurance premiums, medical expenses, or payments on a house in which the person has an interest.

Any money that remains after these basic and special needs are met must be saved or invested for the beneficiary. Money should not be kept at home where it can be lost or stolen, and should not be mixed with the representative's own funds. If any funds are kept in a bank account, the title of the account should show the beneficiary as owner of the funds.

Representative payees should keep records of how the beneficiary's funds are spent. The Social Security Administration will ask for periodic accountings of how the person's benefits were used.

For additional information ask Social Security for a free brochure on "Your Responsibilities as Representative Payee."

If you know someone who appears to need help handling their own benefits, you or an interested family member should notify Social Security to discuss appointment of a representative payee. Before making any such appointment, Social Security checks with the person's physician as to the person's capability of handling funds, or requests proof of court appointment of guardianship.

The Social Security office is located at 1111 E. Front St., Traverse City, MI 49684. The telephone number is (616) 946-8360. Most business can be handled by phone. For the fastest service, try to avoid calling during the first part of the week or month, or during the busy lunch hour. Appointments are available at the Traverse City office, but are not required.

A representative is at the County Building in Grayling on the first and third Tuesday of each month, from 10:30 until 2:00. There is no phone service at this location.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our gratitude to Deputy George M. Anthony of the Sheriff's Dept.

My son visited from downstate. He accidentally locked his keys in the car while it was still running. It was late and we couldn't get a locksmith. Deputy Anthony came out and got his car unlocked. He could not have been more kind and courteous. He is a fine example of a law enforcement officer. Sheriff Hatfield can be proud of his dept.

'D.J.'s Blind Pig' Enjoyed By Cast and Audience

The Grayling Holiday Inn and HT Productions presented "D.J.'s Blind Pig" an original musical production written and directed by D.J. Taylor with musical arrangements by Howard Taylor on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, the 11th through 13th of February at the Holiday Inn.

The musical, set in a 1920's speakeasy during prohibition, featured a wide ranging number of musical productions which found the audience, many of whom had taken up the invitation to dress the part, joining in and adding to the atmosphere and fun.

Premiere singing performances were provided by Kim Martin, Sharon Huss and Tom Phillips. Shannon McNamara was cast as the aspiring but talentless nightclub singer while Clayton Horton surprised a lot of people with his musical talents. Troy Haag was appropriately menacing as the bodyguard-bouncer, Tom Balmes made you believe he really was a street corner newsboy hawking the evening edition, and Ron Rakoczy together with Jamie Cox pulled their comedy bits off to perfection.

The audience was delighted with the upbeat singing and dancing routines provided by Nate Martin, Paul Smith, Jim Hough, Carolyn Rakoczy, Shirley Phillips, Jessica Brown, and D.J. Taylor while cameo appearances by Bill O'Brien and a surprise law enforcement official during a "raid" provided a whimsical diversion.

Show stoppers were "Big Spender" featuring Sharon Huss, "Anything Goes" by D.J. Taylor, "Good Ship Lollipop" by Shannon McNamara and "Old Man River" with Tom Phillips.

The Blind Pig Band (Nancy Hoffman, David Brown, Rob Priestap, Howard Taylor, Tim Taylor, Tony Henning, Marty VanDeVen and Jamie Cox) kept everything moving and had the audience on its feet in the finale when the entire cast joined in with "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and "You're a Grand Old Flag".

The production was simply fun for the cast and audience alike, being obviously enjoyed equally by both.

MUSICAL FUN — Shannon McNamara with Howard Taylor in background.

Finally. A three-year CD with a rate that can go up, but can't go down.

This new Old Kent certificate gives you something you won't get from any other CD. More interest if rates go up. Protection if rates go down. That means you'll get the flexibility of shorter-term investments. And the higher returns you've come to expect with longer-term CDs.

Here's how it works. Each year, your CD rate will be compared to the rate in effect at that time. If the new one is higher, you'll start earning it automatically. If it's lower, no problem. Because you'll never earn less than the rate you got when you bought your CD. Either way, you can add to your earnings by leaving your interest on deposit, allowing it to compound.

Old Kent's new three-year CD. It rewards you when rates go up. It protects you when rates go down. And there's only one place you can get it: Old Kent Bank.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

The Gospel of John

Part 23

A City Saved by Christ

The disciples of Christ had a problem separating physical and spiritual food in John 2:31-33. "Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work." (John 4:34). Jesus Christ received His greatest satisfaction sharing salvation and spiritual truth with others. That was a great desire of His daily ministry, and more important than necessary physical food. Jesus always did the Father's will, "...I do always those things that please him." (John 8:29c).

Jesus Christ stressed doing and working the will of God, rather than just knowing it. In fact, willingness to obey God's will is a condition for knowing His will. "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine..." (John 7:17). "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my father which is in heaven." (Matt. 7:21).

Looking across the green fields 4 months before harvest, the Lord called his disciple's attention apparently to the white robed Samaritans coming from town to find the Messiah. (John 4:35). Jesus stressed not only the will of soul-winning, and the work of soul-winning, but also the wages of soul-winning. "And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto eternal life: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together." (John 4:36). The dual labor of sowing and reaping are both rewarded and bring rejoicing. (John

Jesus illustrates these wages in soul-winning as many of the Samaritans of Sychar were saved because of the testimony of the woman saved at Jacob's well. (John 4:39). He then reminded us that many who were not saved by the witness of the woman, were saved by hearing the very words of Jesus Christ. (John 4:40, 41). We should be encouraged to be faithful in sharing our testimony and God's Holy Word with the lost around us. "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." (Gal. 6:9).

The result of this short stay of Jesus Christ in Samaria, and the testimony of this one woman resulted in the salvation of a multitude in Sychar. "And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world." (John 4:42). We hear the testimony of an entire gentile town that Jesus Christ is the Messiah, the Saviour of the World. Do you know Him as your God and Saviour today? "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." (Acts 4:12).

Scripture Reference: Mark 9: 2-10

If we wish to give a proper place in our mind to the account of the Transfiguration, we need to recall what might have been the feelings of the disciples, when for the first time Jesus talked to them about His Passion to them. As good Jews, they shared the hope of all Israel. They hoped for the coming of a conquering and glorious Messiah. Then the moment arrived when Jesus lead them to make an act of faith. Peter, in their name, declared that they recognized Him as being the Son of God.

But this act of faith did not yet cover the entire plan of God. Peter made the act of faith to Jesus. He did not imagine that it was possible for the Lord to have to undergo the Passion. It was necessary to open their eyes slowly to what would appear to them as an enormous scandal and a very hard test of faith. It was also necessary to strengthen them beforehand.

The Transfiguration is an important step in the education of the Apostles. They are men who expect a glorious Messiah. Now, Jesus has to reveal to them that the One sent by God is the humbled and suffering servant, Himself. How is He to help them overcome the contradiction which they will feel? Jesus wishes to help them, by showing that the suffering Son, will be glorified and this is where the Transfiguration comes in.

The Apostles would fight against and struggle with the scandal of Christ's Passion and Death. The Resurrection and the Pentecost would be needed to make them, and us, realize what God wanted from His beloved Son.

"This is My Son, My Beloved." It is important that at some time the Father should affirm that Jesus, this Man the disciples have chosen to follow, is truly His Son. We must not think that at that moment that the disciples give the word 'Son' the full meaning we give it now that we have a basic understanding of the Blessed Trinity. They realize that through Jesus God is making Himself known. They have an understanding that Jesus has an beginning and a plan that go beyond human limitations. The voice from above calls Him, My Beloved — My Son. They understand that between God and Jesus there is a special bond of Father and Son relationship.

The voice adds: 'Listen to Him.' In the minds of the disciples, Jews waiting for the Messiah, the expression means: "Listen to Him as the answer of your expectations of the Messiah, even during the time when Jesus would be suffering His Passion and Death."

This command, 'Listen to Him,' is also addressed to us today. Each one of us is aware of the resistance of human nature to the invitation to follow Jesus crucified. We know that through Jesus our end is one of glory, but the Lord has to instruct us, as He instructed His disciples, to overcome the obstacle of suffering and death.

Sometimes He helps us by giving us moments of joy that change our faith. But those moments are not very common. What is important is that we listen to Jesus. Do we realize how fully He responds to our questions, all our expectations, our most profound desires?

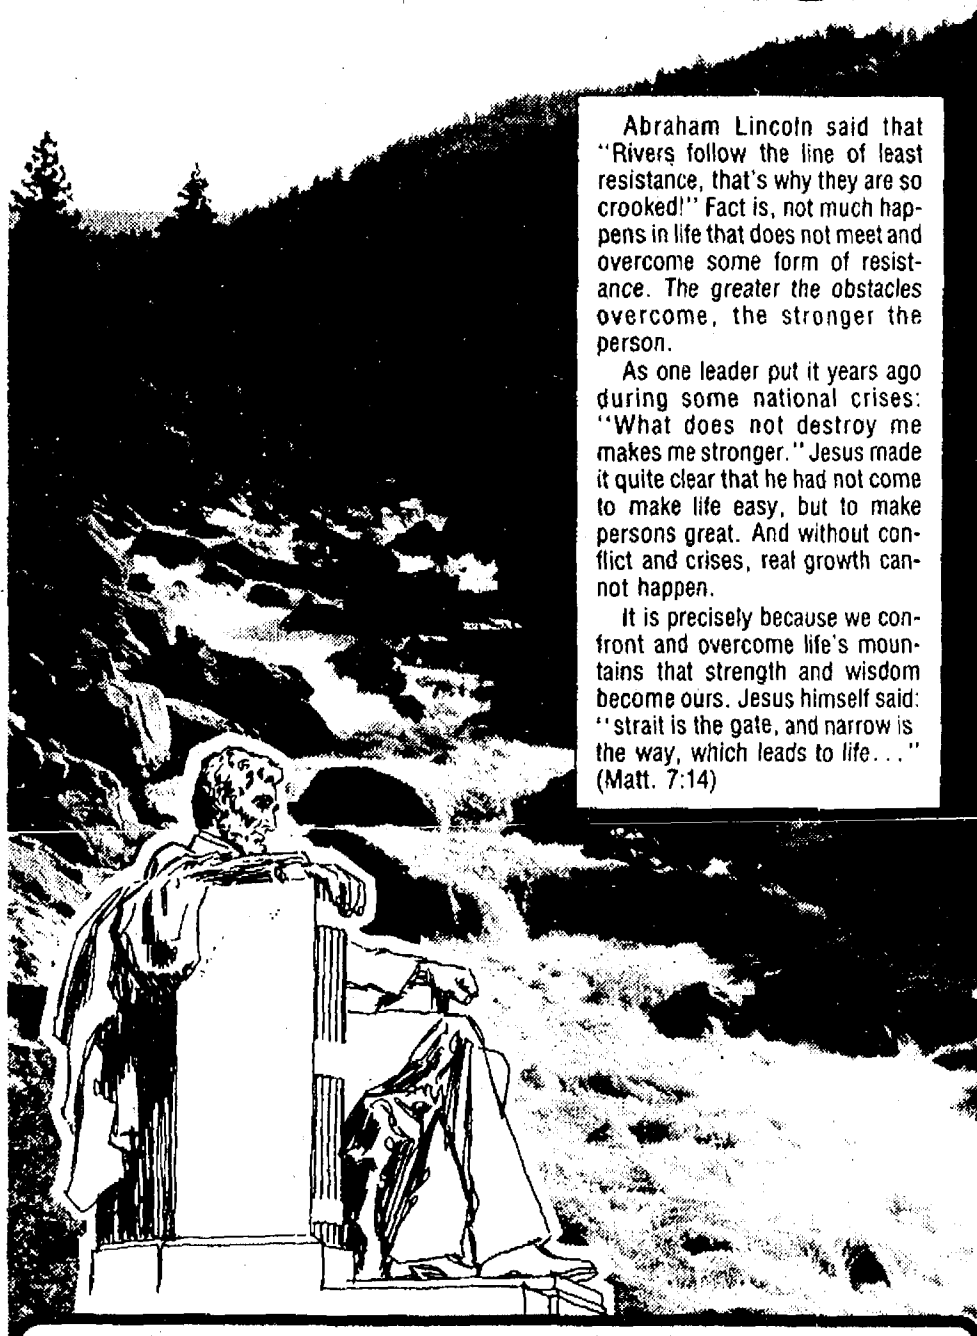

As we progress in life, we become aware of life's passion and glory, its trials and hopes. Where can we find the example, where can we find the hope and strength that can help us reach the goal? 'Listen' to Jesus Who walks before us and leads us to our own transfiguration.

You are invited to attend any of the Lenten Services or Easter Liturgies at St. Mary's Church.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

RESISTANCE OVERCOME

Abraham Lincoln said that "Rivers follow the line of least resistance, that's why they are so crooked!" Fact is, not much happens in life that does not meet and overcome some form of resistance. The greater the obstacles overcome, the stronger the person.

As one leader put it years ago during some national crises: "What does not destroy me makes me stronger." Jesus made it quite clear that he had not come to make life easy, but to make persons great. And without conflict and crises, real growth cannot happen.

It is precisely because we confront and overcome life's mountains that strength and wisdom become ours. Jesus himself said: "strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leads to life..." (Matt. 7:14)

2. Subsequent to review of a proposed lease (2/88) between the Department of Military Affairs and the Grayling Recreation Authority, it was moved by Ashton and supported by O'Mara, that if and when the terms of the proposed Rasmus Hanson Hills lease are agreeable to the G.R.A. the Supervisor be authorized to sign said lease on behalf of Grayling Township. 6. Motion by O'Mara, supported by McLachlan, to recess regular meeting to convene public hearing regarding proposed Industrial Development District No. 4. Ayes: all, motion carried.

PUBLIC HEARING
The Township of Grayling has been requested to establish, as Township of Grayling Industrial Development District No. 4, certain property described as follows:

The S½ of the S½ of the NE ¼ and the SE ¼ of Section 5, T26N, R3W, lying East of I-75 and North and West of North Down River Road, Township of Grayling, Crawford County, Michigan and containing 129.5 Ac. M/L.

Supervisor stated the property in question is currently zoned C-2 (Heavy Commercial) which also includes light industrial uses.

Floor opened to public.

Nelson Miles questioned whether property within the district could be rezoned to light commercial or residential in the future or would the I.D.D. designation prevent rezoning?

Stancil indicated the procedure for rezoning parcels within the I.D.D. would be the same as for any other parcel in the Township.

Stancil explained that the initial request for establishing an Industrial Development District came from Weyerhaeuser Company which has entered into a Lease Purchase Agreement on parcel 20-041-005-016-020, North Down River Road, (formerly Grayling Industries) and will establish a manufacturing operation to process finished wood products.

On January 29, 1988, the Weyerhaeuser Company also filed application for an Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificate, for the same parcel, pursuant to Michigan Act 198, Plant Rehabilitation and Industrial Development Districts Law.

In the event that Industrial Development District No. 4 is established a public hearing will be scheduled regarding the tax exemption certificate request.

No further comments from those present.

Motion by Ashton, supported by O'Mara, to close public hearing. All ayes, motion carried.

Motion by O'Mara, supported by McLachlan, to adopt the following:

BUDDY'S WORKSHOP

Question and Answer

To save on fuel bills, how can I add insulation to a house constructed of concrete blocks?

If your house is made of concrete blocks and walls have not been covered with wall-board, you can add a layer of insulation between the wall-board and the block wall.

The material having the least thickness is rigid foam available at home centers. It is glued to the block.

How can we patch small cracks in plaster walls before painting. Six months later the cracks returned.

The weakest parts of a house will give, and the old cracks at the weakest point returns. You can use a fiber-glass tape over the crack before painting. The tape is flexible to a degree and when stress is applied the tape will allow some give.

Minor wall cracks by themselves are not serious. But keep an eye peeled for the rest of your house for problems in the foundation.

How should I glue odd-shaped toys or objects together. Try using modeling clay to help keep the parts adhered until the glue sets up.

I guess I'm getting old but I have trouble seeing the bubble in the level. Are there levels I can use to solve this problem?

New levels have a red glow instead of liquid to show and then tells you by beeping when lined up right. It is more expensive but may solve your problem. Watch your hardware stores for this new gimmick.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

At this time of the year there is a lot of activity in the lives of our native wild dogs, by which I mean the coyotes and foxes. In North America there are eight members in the family, the coyote, gray wolf, red wolf, red fox, swift fox, kit fox, arctic fox and the gray fox. According to one source I have, only three of these may be found in our area. While their size and some habits vary they do have some things in common with other members of the family.

They are all dog-like in appearance, they have five toes on each front foot, but only four on each back foot. All have a scent gland at the base of and on top of the tail. Rabies does occur in this species and along with the mange is thought to be natural control on population numbers. The coyote may attain a weight of fifty pounds, while a Red or Gray Fox hardly gets over fifteen pounds.

The coyote and red fox typically den in the ground and usually have alternate dens which they can move into if disturbed. The Gray Fox can and does climb trees and may in fact den in a hollow tree many feet from the ground.

The wild dogs bury surplus food for later use which accounts for the trait of burying bones that our domestic dogs bury. This is the time that the coyotes and foxes are going through their seasonal courtship which accounts for the activity.

Resource Review

Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Although I have not yet seen the order, it is my understanding that the Natural Resources Commission has decided to institute a steel shot requirement for all of the Lower Peninsula, starting with the 1988 waterfowl season. Lead shot will be allowed in most of the Upper Peninsula until the 1989 waterfowl season.

The reason for this action is to save the thousands of ducks, geese and swans which die each year from "lead poisoning". Lead pellets sink to the bottom of lakes, ponds and marshes from where they are frequently scooped up and ingested by feeding waterfowl. Once in the digestive system of the bird, the lead causes a fatal chemical reaction. Studies have shown that steel shot will not cause this type of mortality.

This decision is certain to result in a clamor raised by some waterfowl hunters. Complaints about steel shot are that it is ineffective, too expensive and unavailable. I have found that if the game is within range, steel shot is every bit as effective as lead (I have had success with it turkey hunting, also). Expense can be cut down by being more sure of your shot - no sky busting, and by ordering in larger quantities with some hunting buddies. Order soon to be sure of an adequate supply by fall. Availability and selection is expected to improve now that it is required.

For those who regularly hunt certain areas of the state, this regulation is not new. Steel shot has been required at such places as Fish Point, Houghton Lake and St. Charles for several years.

Because of different performance characteristics, a steel shot size of #0, #2, or #3 is suggested, if you ordinarily use #4 lead shot.

Grouse and woodcock hunters who occasionally shoot a duck along a creek or pond should be aware that if they have a duck, it will be unlawful to have lead shot in possession. #6 steel shot is suggested for those hunters.

Waterfowl hunters have known for a long time that this mandate was coming. While it may seem to be just one more burden, the reason for it cannot be denied. In the long run, it will have to help.

Poet's Corner

Heart Condition

The doctors order an X-ray, but the picture is crowded and unclear
so they decide to operate making careful incisions.
They find my heart bloated, membranes stretched paper-thin by the stored-up remnants of my daily life.
The skin is pulled back and they cut into the heart itself, beginning to extract things, one by one...

Shreds of my old baby blanket stained with chocolate ice cream, theatre ticket stubs, and the pen I was using the first time someone called it golden.

Nurses suction away a thin layer of ash left over from the fireworks of first love and underneath they find the heavier things—an old school paper, nearly folded to hide the angry red F glaring from the corner
the awful names Suzie Kilter thrust into my ears sitting next to me at our kindergarten lunch table and, carved in cold stone, the I.D. card of an A.R. Melfine, found in a wallet with 48 dollars and never returned.

These items are floated, swabbed of color,
in a glass jar, placed next to my hospital bed.
At night I watch them
drifting in slow, liquid circles my face as limp as that ancient wet paper and every bit as lifeless.

Verse or Worse

By Joseph D. Murphy

Someone's Dream

As you travel around the countryside,
You'll find clearings in the wood.
If you look around, you will see
Where old buildings have stood.

You ask yourself why anyone
Would build their home here in the wood?
Did they think this sand was farmland?
It's plain to see it is no good.

The land is so poor no crop could grow,
In this type of sandy land.
But someone had tried to beat the odds,
They had to try their hand.

Maybe when the land was new,
It might grow a little crop.
But there was not much in the soil
Soon growing had to stop.

Perhaps, they came from other lands
So far across the sea,
Just to own a piece of land
To them was victory.

They built their homes and buildings—
Cleared the land with awesome toil.
They might have made a go of it,
Except for the worthless soil.

How they must have labored,
To try to make their poor land pay,
Clinging to their long held dreams
And starving more each day.

The harsh land finally beat them.
They had to change their mind.
Travel on to make a living
And leave their dreams behind.

So when you come upon such places—
Stop and think about its past.
You're looking at another's dream—
A dream that didn't last.

'Health Wares' Cares For At-Home Area Patients

By Don Geiss

The wider variety of products carried has caused Respi-Care to change its name to Health Wares, and this fact seems to have led some people to believe that the company has moved from Grayling.

Their concern about identity and a direct connection with the area has led to this story. The company has not even changed locations since opening a branch office here but is still located at the Milltown Medical Clinic, 1200 North Down River Road.

Health Wares is a company that advertises health and wellness supplies and equipment. It may be that individuals cannot conceive of the scope of the offerings because modern technology and the changing medical care field has caused development of many new methods of treatment.

The original name was Respi-Care because at the time the company began operation in 1984 respiratory equipment was the primary product. It consisted of oxygen supplies and other equipment associated with breathing problems plus registered respiratory therapists on staff for consultation, instruction, and pulmonary hygiene.

From the time it opened and over the period of branch expansion, equipment and services have expanded to include many aspects of patient care outside the hospital. According to its founder, Gary Sauer of Gaylord, "The overriding mission of Health Wares is to provide support to those citizens who are outside the hospital and require some form of medical technology or care to maintain/improve their quality of life."

To describe all of the products would necessitate a separate publication but briefly the company has eight other areas of equipment and/or services. Those include: intravenous therapy, chemotherapy, enteral and parental nutrition therapy, urological and ostomy supplies, orthotics, prosthetics, durable medical equipment and nursing services.

These supplies or services normally come through a recommendation of a doctor who will prescribe a specific item or care for the patient. The patient has the option of going to any company where that capability is available much the same as the patient may go to any pharmacist to fill a prescription. He said that in some rare cases the patient requests help directly from the company. In response to that request, he said, a representative will attend and make a study of the requested assistance. That representative then makes a report to the physician who may or may not confirm the request.

To survey the various types of equipment offered is to find a myriad of devices in keeping with modern technology. JoAnne Neuberger, Grayling customer service representative, said that one of the more recent advances is in the area of chemotherapy. She noted that a patient in the past had to make many trips to a hospital or doctor's office for treatment. Now there is a type of pump on the market, she explained, which can be attached to the patient and issue the proper dosage. That pump is available at specific medical locations where a doctor can issue the device.

Home nursing has become more and more important because of the government and insurance imposed limits to hospital stays for all patients. Once again the physician initiates the request. The company indicates that it provides skilled nursing for the homebound or recently discharged patient. They provide nurses, nurse aides, physical therapists, occupational therapist, registered respiratory therapist, speech therapist and a registered dietician.

Equipment and services available include wheelchairs (they sell and service most makes and power vehicles) and E-Z Lift Power chairs which are electrically powered lifting cushions that enable certain patients to get out of a chair without assistance.

Hospital beds, walking aids, comfort aids and orthopedic supports and shoes are also available. Included in the supply and equipment stock are nutritional support items, ostomy supplies, self testing aids, wound management and incontinent aids.

The home office for the company is in Gaylord with branch offices in Petoskey and more recently in Houghton Lake and Alpena in addition to the Grayling facility. The company currently employs three certified respiratory therapists and 10 registered respiratory therapists. Also on the staff are 14 registered nurses.

Bill Heska, Grayling branch manager said, "The company wants to be one of innovation and creativity and to be the state of the art concern in the business."

Hembling Takes Over Grayling K mart Manager Position

By Don Geiss

New Grayling K mart Manager Joe Hembling came up through the ranks of the company over a period of 21½ years.

Hembling who is originally from Reese, Michigan, (20 miles east of Saginaw) came to this area from a K mart store in Warren, Michigan. His career began with the company in the sporting goods department. Actually, he pointed out, at that time sporting goods was known as a licensee of the store. The sporting goods department located in each store was not directly under company management.

He moved up to the position of district manager for sporting goods and automotive and from there was promoted to the regional manager's post. Hembling's next step was to the store management program. He served as assistant manager of K mart's Holland Avenue at Saginaw store and from there went to the Warren, Michigan store as its co-manager.

During his stay at Warren, Hembling commuted from his home in Vassar near Saginaw which is some 80 miles away. At the present time he maintains the home in Vassar but will move to the area when his downstate home is sold. Meanwhile he is residing at Higgins Lake and contends that every time he leaves the store it is like being on vacation.

Hembling is married and Faye, his spouse, along with children, Danielle, 13, and Cassandra, 6, will move up in the summer when school is out. He said that the youngsters have friends down there and it will be hard for them to part company. Also taken into account in plans for the move later was the fact that it would make sense for the children to finish out the school year.

For all of the golfers looking for the person to complete a foursome, Hembling may well be that individual although he was not willing

Kirtland Community College To Hold 3rd Open House

In honor of National Community College month, Kirtland Community College will be holding its third annual Open House on Sunday, February 28th, from noon until 4 p.m.

Some of the special activities planned for the day include a Native American Arts Display in the Library, free manicures in the Cosmetology Lab, and free blood pressure monitoring in the Nursing Labs. Visitors will also receive a complimentary hot dog lunch, provided by local vendors.

Many of the labs and classrooms will be open, and visitors will have a chance to experience a small part of what the college is offering to its students and community members.

Help your kids to just say no.
